

Share an experience
where you felt like you truly belonged.

What made you feel that
way?

Talk about a time when you felt like you didn't belong.

What made you feel that
way?

Share about a time that you felt misunderstood.

Share about a time when you felt Jewish joy.

One of the values of Reform Judaism is belonging.

How do you feel connected with Jews in this country? in Israel?

In what ways do you not feel connected with Jews here or in Israel?

Learning is an important value of Reform Judaism.

When you think about Israel, what is something you want to learn more about?

What is something you've heard in the past year about Israel, and how does it make you feel?

Share about a time when you were proud of an aspect of your identity.

Share about a time when you felt like you had to hide or downplay part of your identity.

Judaism teaches that every person is created in the Divine image (b'tzelem Elohim).

What does that idea mean to you? How does that idea help you think about how to get along with people you dislike or disagree with?

Evolving is a value of Reform Judaism.

Can you think of a time
when you changed your point of view on something important?
Share about that experience.